

The PAX Warrior scholarship was established in honor of Paxton Bowe Andrews, and done so to recognize his beautiful soul and his brave fight against childhood cancer. The PAX Warrior scholarship is awarded to a graduating senior whose life has been impacted by childhood cancer. Candidates include an individual who is: currently undergoing treatment for childhood cancer; a survivor of childhood cancer; a sibling, relative, or friend of a child who has been diagnosed with childhood cancer; and/or an ambassador and champion of childhood cancer. The recipient must possess high character and demonstrate perseverance, humility and courage. To stay in alignment with our mission to support local families, the recipient must reside in southeastern Wisconsin, or have supported a child with cancer who resides in southeastern Wisconsin.
